

STEALTH ACCESS PANELS

Stealth Access Panels by Wind-lock® are a standout product made of glass fiber reinforced gypsum (GFRG) to blend seamlessly into a drywall ceiling or wall. They're an attractive, rust-free alternative to metal panels or fabricated access that must be hidden in closets.

STEALTH ACCESS PANELS BY WIND-LOCK®

EXCLUSIVE
PRODUCT

Stealth Access Panels provide an aesthetically pleasing, easy-to-install solution for a more attractive interior, even where access is frequently required. For a demonstration of how easy installation can be, visit www.wind-lock.com and view a Stealth Installation Video.

Versatile Stealth Access Panels are available in various standard, commercial and residential sizes for both new and retrofit construction across unlimited applications. Their smart design helps contractors work smarter, faster and better.

Stealth Access Panel advantages include:

- Tapered edge for tape joint
- Easily textured
- Lightweight
- Smooth rounded edge
- Blends into surrounding drywall
- No shrinking or cracking
- Perfect for retrofit applications
- Single trade installation
- Reduced labor costs

1. Ceiling Access Panels

Showcase your space, not your access panel. Stealth Access Panels are designed to be an attractive alternative to typical access panels in commercial and residential buildings.

Their GFRG-based design can't rust and blends in seamlessly with either new or retrofitted drywall ceilings.

That helps you preserve aesthetic style, because design should be noticed, but access panels should not.
